Print Guide

For flat and folded products.

Stock Options

Silk

This stock is considered the default choice for professional print. Silk coated stock has a slight sheen, giving vibrant colours, without a full gloss finish so it's still easy to read from.

Uncoated

No shine, uncoated stocks are the easiest to write on and are popular in business stationery items.

Gloss

For a real shine, you can choose our gloss coated stock. This stock gives your colours and photos an added vibrancy without the expense of added gloss lamination.

Lamination Options

Available on 250gsm, 350gsm Silk and 450gsm Silk.

Matt Lamination

A smooth, non-reflective finish that softens glare while giving your print a refined, professional feel.

Soft-Touch Lamination

A velvet-style coating that creates a soft, tactile surface with a premium, high-end look.

Gloss Lamination

A sleek, glossy layer that boosts colour depth and contrast for bold, high-impact designs.

Finishing Options

Available on Matt & Soft Touch Lamination.

Silver Foiling

Add a flash of metallic silver to your designs – a sure-fire way to make your print stand out with a cool, refined finish.

Gold Foiling

Rich metallic gold detailing that brings warmth and a luxurious finish to your artwork.

Spot UV

A high-gloss coating applied to specific areas to highlight key elements with added shine and texture.

Perforation Options

Only available on select products.

Centre

A single perforated line positioned through the middle for clean, easy separation.

Ticket

One perforated line set at the right-hand third, ideal for tear-off sections.

Fold Guide

A variety of fold options lets content flow naturally while staying visually appealing. Choices like half folds, tri-folds, Z-folds and roll folds help organise information clearly, making them ideal for menus, programmes, brochures or promotional handouts. Each fold adds structure and guides the reader through the content.

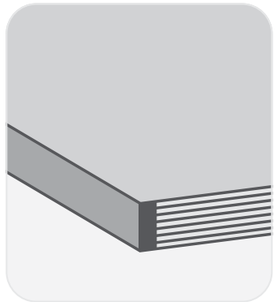
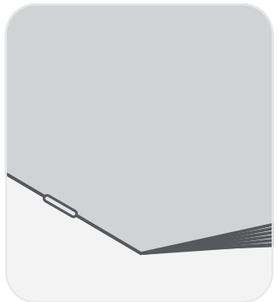
Binding Guide

Different binding styles give booklets and brochures a polished, professional finish. Stapled binding is perfect for slimmer publications, while perfect binding creates a square spine for a more substantial, premium look. Each method balances durability, presentation and practicality, ensuring the finished piece is both functional and attractive.



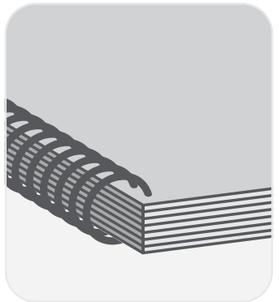
Perfect Bound Books

Glued along the spine with a square, book-like finish. Best for thicker booklets and anything that needs a premium, professional feel.



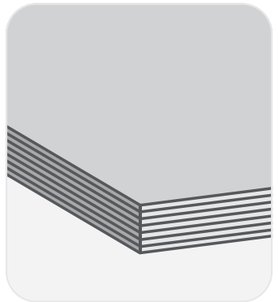
Stapled Booklets

Secured with staples through the spine. Ideal for shorter booklets that need to be lightweight, cost-effective and quick to produce.



Wiro Bound Booklets

Punched pages held together with a metal wire. Opens flat and folds back on itself, making it great for manuals, notebooks and calendars.



Notepads & Deskpads

Sheets glued on one edge with a rigid backing. Designed for easy tear-off and everyday writing or jotting.

Books & Booklets

Exercise Books

Exercise books are an affordable and practical solution for clients who need functional, high-quality books for a variety of uses. With a lightweight, smooth stock, these books offer an absorbent surface that's perfect for writing, drawing, and note-taking. Their versatile design makes them a great option for schools, educational settings, and even office environments.

Whether used for classwork, assignments, or creative projects, exercise books provide a reliable and durable choice. Their simplicity ensures ease of use, while the high-quality finish ensures a smooth writing experience. Available in a range of sizes, they are an essential stationery item for students, teachers, and professionals alike.

Perfect Bound Books

Looking for highly premium and durable books at an affordable price? Perfect bound books are the ideal solution. Renowned for their sleek and professional appearance, these books offer durability and can accommodate a higher page count of 450 printed pages, making them a fantastic choice for various printing needs such as catalogues, novels, or magazines with a high page count. As standard, our perfect bound books are available in 4pp increments. If you are looking for a different pagination, contact us for a quote.

Embrace a soft cover with a slightly heavier stock than your inners and don't forget you can enhance your client's book with options like foiling or Spot UV for an extra touch of luxury.

Custom Shape Flyers

Custom shape flyers are built for campaigns that need more than a standard rectangle. By moving beyond traditional sizes, you create an instant point of difference that stands out in hand, on counters, and in stacks of post. Precision cutting and high-quality print ensure every curve and contour feels intentional, giving your design room to work harder and communicate faster.

Whether it's a product silhouette, logo outline, or something completely unexpected, custom shapes transform a simple handout into a memorable piece that demands attention and reinforces your message.

Perforated Flyers

Elevate your clients' event management and documentation with our versatile perforated flyer range. Perfect for creating professional tickets, forms, or informational handouts, our perforated flyers offer a range of customisable options to meet various needs.

For a classic ticket appearance, choose our DL flyer with a perforated line positioned 70mm from the right-hand edge. This design is ideal for event tickets or vouchers, providing a clean and professional look with a convenient tear-off section.

Alternatively, for forms, surveys, or any other informational materials, consider our simple centre perforation. This design allows you to neatly split flyers in half, making it easy for recipients to detach and keep important sections.

Creased Leaflets

Need a leaflet that makes a strong first impression without compromising on quality? Our creased leaflets are the answer. Unlike traditional folded leaflets, these are supplied flat with a precision matrix crease – the VIP treatment for thicker stocks that can't be folded by machine.

Crafted from our sturdier, premium stocks, these creased leaflets are perfect for storing flat until you're ready to use them. Ideal for menus, invitations, or any print that needs to stay neat and pristine during transit or storage. When it's time to present, simply fold along the crease for a sharp, professional finish.

Whether it's creating a polished menu, a sophisticated invite, or a premium marketing piece, creased leaflets combine strength and sophistication. They're ready to impress, flat-packed with purpose!
